Description

Large female terracotta statue - XVIIIe century spirit
Superb terracotta sculpture depicting a nude young woman in a classic, elegant style inspired by the decorative statues of the XVIIIe century. Made in the middle of the XXe century (1950s-1960s), this piece of beautiful presence seduces with its fine details, old-fashioned charm and natural patina. The statue is designed in two assembled parts, according to the traditional technique once used. It rests on an integrated base and will fit perfectly in a garden, terrace, veranda or interior with character. Height: approx. 150 cm
