Description

Exceptional and rare three-door inlaid display case, adorned with rich floral decorations in brass. Made in France around 1850. It features a large central door, inlaid and decorated with brass, with two spacious shelves. On either side, a glass door houses two glass shelves and a luxuriously decorated fabric at the bottom. All doors are richly decorated with brass floral motifs and lock. The display case is surrounded by a geometric brass frieze with interlacing, topped by a marble top. It rests on six elegant arched legs, beautifully decorated in brass. The sleek silhouette and refined lines of this showcase lend it a timeless beauty, making it an ideal addition to any luxurious interior. Meticulously handcrafted from the finest materials, this French-style showcase boasts a glossy finish that sublimates its
