490 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Description

Warnant 9mm flobert system rifle - Last quarter of the 19th century
Category D weapon, free purchase and possession for adults. No shipping outside the European Union
Maker's markings on the breech, which I can't identify precisely, however probably English for what I come to read. Half pistol grip with cheek rest, made in a beautiful wood species. Octagonal barrel with rear sight and rear sight, specially adapted for leisure target shooting with short 9mm flobert bullets and not shot cartridges. However, chamber both ammunitions perfectly. Perfect mechanism. Ammunition not for sale. Weight 1795gr
Length 99cm
Barrel length 60cm
