Description

Salvador Mundi or Infant Jesus of Prague in polychrome and gilded wood, late 17th century. This large-scale sculpture depicts the infant Jesus raising his right hand in blessing, while his left hand holds the cruciferous orb, a symbol of authority. He is crowned with a royal symbol, symbolizing the power of Jesus over the kingdom of God. Good condition, missing fingers on right hand, one calf redone, visible on photos, polychromy and gilding.
