PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Pascal Magis (1955-2011) Triptyque Bleu - 1998

5 800 EUR

Signature : Pascal Magis

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Oil painting

Length : 150 cm

Width : 250 cm

Description

Pascal MAGIS(Aurillac 1955 - Meyrals 2011)Blue triptych - 1998Acrylic on canvasH. 150 cm; L. 250 cm (2 panels 50 cm wide, and the central panel 150 cm wide)Signed lower right on central panelProvenance: Private collection, Île-de-FrancePascal Magis was born in 1955 in Aurillac, Cantal, and grew up in the Périgord Noir, in the small village of Meyrals. In fact, this village has become a must for contemporary art lovers, with several galleries based there, including Magis' studio, kept open by his niece. Pascal Magis was born in Aurillac, in the Cantal region of France.A Beaux-Arts graduate, he specialized in tapestry and became a cartonnier-lissier. From 1988 onwards, he devoted himself exclusively to painting, his preferred field. After graduating from the

Dealer

Galerie Ars Pictura
Tableaux, dessins, céramiques du Périgord
Mobile : 0677369510

Saint-Julien-de-Crempse 24140

Beaux-Arts, he specialized in tapestry and became a cartonnier-lissier.Magis' work can be placed within the "lyrical abstraction" movement. Generally working on large formats, he throws ample movements onto his canvases bringing shapes and stains, sometimes drips, in a highly mastered gestural writing. His palette is lilting, bright colors rubbing shoulders with deep hues, ruptures contrasting with immaculate whites.Generous and passionate, Pascal Magis, a prolific and internationally acclaimed artist, passed away at the end of 2011, leaving behind many major works in abstract art, far removed from the figurative currents of Périgord artists.