Description

A very original oil on canvas measuring 22cm x 27cm plus a quality frame measuring 35cm x 40cm. The painting, partially impastoed, depicts strollers with horse-drawn carriages in the background. Signed lower left "Huchet" and on the edge "Urbain Huchet," born in Rennes on April 28, 1930, and died in Boulogne-Billancourt on December 16, 2014, he was a French painter and lithographer. He lived in Pont-Aven from 1960 to 1963 before settling in Boulogne-Billancourt. After studying law and working in the textile industry, Urbain Huchet, a self-taught artist, decided in 1960 to devote himself exclusively to painting. He then lived for three years in Pont-Aven, painting landscapes, seascapes, lively scenes, and portraits of distinctive characters, revealing his admiration
