

Moroccan Nimcha Sword With Spanish Blade - Morocco, 18th Century

730 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Etat d'usage

Description

Moroccan Nimcha Sword With Spanish Blade - Morocco, 18th Century
Straight double-edged blade with wide central gutter on the first quarter. Gutter inscription "SAQUES SIN RASON - EMBAINES SIN HONOR". The blade was shortened at its base, the entire motto was "NO ME SAQUES SIN RASON - NO ME EMBAINES SIN HONOR". The point of the blade was also reworked, as was the counter-edge, to make the blade slightly curved. This model of Spanish blade is regularly found on the Spanish cavalry saber model 1728. The fact that the blade has been reworked at the base and not just at the tip and not just at the tip (usually locally beveled on European or European import blades) leads me to believe that this might be a prize blade (perhaps from

Dealer

Galerie Mathieu

Antiquités, armes et art extra-Européens

Châteauneuf-sur-Charente 16120 barbarian fighting) rather than a trade blade. rather than a trade blade. Steel guard with three pitons and guard branch. Bovine horn handle. Leather-covered wooden scabbard with chased brass bolt. Some damage to the scabbard leather. Overall length 91cm Length without scabbard 88cm Blade length 73,5cm Weight 968gr Weight without scabbard 788gr