

Dove Cup By Jorj Robin - Artist Of The Seiz-breur Movement - Brittany

680 EUR

Signature : Jorj Robin (1904 - 1928)

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Sandstone

Diameter : 20 cm

Description

Manufacture HB Quimper, polychrome stoneware, circa 1930. Diameter 20 cm. Jorj Robin (1904 - 1928) Born in Nantes into a family of artists, raised largely by his grandfather, sculptor Joseph Vallet. Georges Robin naturally the Beaux-Arts in Nantes at the age of 14. He continued his studies at the École Nationale Supérieure des Beaux-Arts in Paris, where he studied under taught by Jean Boucher. He is particularly noted in the field of sculpture. But Georges Robin had two loves: art and politics. He was an active member of the Parti Autonomiste Breton in Paris. It was through this organization that he met Jeanne Malivel and the Creston couple, and that he naturally joined them in the Seiz Breur movement, which took shape in 1923. He was

Dealer

Bretagne Ancienne

Specialize in breton art : painting, ceramic, folk art

Tel : 02 40 15 63 30

Mobile : 06 20 74 90 39

21, rue de saillé

Guérande 44350

also the creation of the magazine Kornog. He began his collaboration with HB in 1924, at just 20 years of age. Tuberculosis took his life at the age of 24, leaving behind twenty-five different statues. This artist did not have the time to give the full power of her talent, which, had it not been for her premature departure, would undoubtedly have been on a par with Méheut or Quillivic.