Description

Orthodox cloisonné holy water font consisting of a cross and a receptacle for holy water. The cross, decorated with garlands of 'flowers' has its ends guilloché-cut in gilt bronze. The white-enameled center bears monograms in a radiating surround. The receptacle, also cloisonné with floral motifs, has its interior enameled in white. The whole rests on a patinated copper leaf decorated with nebulous and starry skies. The back is also made of copper leaf. Beautiful religious object in very good condition..
