

Enameled Stoneware Dish. Japan Kutani Kilns 19th Century.

800 EUR

Signature : Kutani

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Sandstone

Diameter : 29cm

Description

Large brownware dish enameled with a design of Chinese children in reserves. The reverse is covered with a deep green enamel. The decoration is highly symbolic: in one of the reserves, the jar and 2 children symbolize a wonderful birth, while the other reserve shows 3 children holding a dog on a leash, ensuring the family's protection. In the center is the phoenix, a feminine protective principle. This dish augurs family happiness under the protection of the beneficial feminine principle. Japan, Kutani kiln in Kaga, Edo period, early 19th century. Good condition. Diameter: 29cm.
