Description

Solid oak chest, 19th-century period, with a rustic, authentic character. This piece of furniture features a sober front adorned with a molded panel with scalloped decoration, framed by thick uprights, testifying to old-fashioned craftsmanship. The top opens with a hinged lid, revealing a deep storage space. The construction is typical of rural production: simple assemblies, thick wood, visible tool marks and beautiful patina of use. The interior, left unfinished, retains all its original appearance. This chest could be used as a domestic storage unit, a grocery chest or a small piece of occasional furniture. Beautiful decorative piece, ideal in a country, mountain or wabi-sabi spirit interior. Era: XIXth century
Materials: Solid oak
Dimensions: Height: 60 cm
Width: 43 cm
Depth: 35 cm
