

Epergne Vase In Pink Blown Glass

300 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Glass

Height : 45

Description

Epergne vase in blown glass in a deep pink hue, composed of a harmonious ensemble of floral cones arranged around a slender central element. The piece is distinguished by its flowing shapes and delicately scalloped edges, evoking blossoming flower corollas. The elements are enriched by decorative clear glass applications in relief, bringing lightness and refinement to the whole. The base, also in pink glass, features a particularly decorative undulating shape. The central gilded metal mounting ensures the composition's stability and balance. This type of object, both decorative and functional, was intended to hold flowers or adorn a table in an elegant interior. Era: Twentieth-century work, in the taste of artistic glassware productions (Murano-type) Materials: Blown glass, metal
