Description

Charming bronze from Vienna depicting a pair of cats embracing in a tender love scene. The two felines, raised on their hind legs, embrace in a composition full of movement and poetry. The finely chiseled coat work and expressive glances testify to the delicate craftsmanship of late 19th-century Viennese workshops. The piece is marked "Geschützt" between the paws. Austrian work, late 19th century. Very good overall condition, with some very slight wear to the polychromy and patina, bearing witness to its age and authenticity.
