

Pair Of Japanese-decorated Porcelain Tureens

150 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Porcelain

Width : 14

Height : 19

Description

Pair of porcelain pot holders with Japanese-style decoration, each featuring a central medallion depicting character faces, probably inspired by Japanese theater or daily life. The backgrounds are treated in a delicate celadon enamel, enhanced by stylized polychrome motifs and gold highlights. The slightly moving contours add an elegant decorative touch. This type of object is in keeping with the taste for Japonism very much in vogue in Europe at the beginning of the 20th century. Presence of marks under the base. Era: XXth century Dimensions: 19 x 14 cm Materials: Enameled porcelain, polychrome and gilded decoration Condition: Good overall condition, slight wear and traces of use, minor soiling under the bases.
