Description

Ady Kroyer: Baluster-shaped vase in black glass, decorated in relief with a stylized female figure in the Art Deco taste. The decoration depicts a slender dancer with sinuous lines, treated in a very graphic spirit, typical of the 1920s-1930s. The figure, applied in slight relief and patinated in turquoise green tones, stands out with finesse against the deep black background of the vase. Wavy lines complete the composition, reinforcing the movement and modernity of the whole. The "Ady" signature visible on the decoration reinforces the artistic character of the piece, evoking decorative glasswork or art ceramics in the spirit of Art Deco productions. Great decorative presence, ideal in a modern interior or as part of a collection of Art Deco objects. Dimensions: Height: 30
