Condition : Bon état

Material : Plaster

Height : 90

Description

Important pair of oval plaster medallions sculpted in high relief, depicting mythologically inspired scenes in the neoclassical taste. Each composition features idealized antique-style figures: - one featuring a draped young woman accompanied by a winged love, holding an olive branch, symbol of peace, - the other depicting a naked young man in the manner of an antique god, receiving a laurel wreath from a winged figure, allegory of victory or fame. The finely modeled figures stand out against a deep brown background, in molded oval frames with a gilded finish. The ensemble strongly evokes the neoclassical aesthetic of the 19th century, inspired by Greco-Roman antiquity and the models of academic sculpture. High-quality decorative work, ideal for a classic wall decoration or a stylish
