Description

Pair of iridescent glass vases with relief decoration evoking plant or organic motifs, typical of the Art Nouveau aesthetic. The glass features a beautiful iridescence with changing reflections, in subtle shades of violet, blue and pearly, obtained by surface treatment. The flowing, ribbed, undulating decoration is reminiscent of the natural forms so dear to this period. The shape, slightly flared at the base and narrowed towards the neck, gives them an elegant, balanced silhouette. Each vase is highlighted at the neck by a thin silver-plated metal frame, adding an extra decorative touch. These pieces evoke early 20th-century art glassware production, in the spirit of Loetz, Kralik or French iridescent glassware. Ideal as a decorative pair or for small
