Description

Important plaster mask depicting Saint Peter, after a model by the great Baroque sculptor Alessandro Algardi, known as "Algarde," created circa 1646-1649. The cast retains the visible seams of the piece-mould, a detail that gives it an interesting studio character. Probably produced for artistic instruction. 19th-century work. A plaster cast executed in the purest Baroque taste. Losses and minor damages. Dimensions: H. 39 × W. 31 × D. 17 cm.
