Description

This item is a fourteen-light crystal chandelier, an exceptional antique of French origin, dating approximately to the 1930s or 1940s. Style and Origin: It is an example of fine French craftsmanship, often associated with the Baccarat style or "Baccarat manner" due to the complexity of the crystal work and its formal elegance. Structure: The chandelier features a central baluster column in carved crystal and fourteen arms supporting the lights, arranged on multiple levels to create a dramatic effect. Decorative Details: It is richly adorned with crystal pendants and finely crafted bobèches (drip plates) that brilliantly reflect the light. Cleaned and rewired, fully functional and ready for use. In excellent vintage condition. The crystals, all original and in good condition, show
