Description

Elegant suite of Louis XV period chairs in carved beechwood, resting on four curved legs. The contours of the backrests and the curved wooden belts are adorned with carved motifs of flowers and foliage. The seats and center of the backrests are upholstered in velvet fabric in warm orange tones, highlighted by a semis of tapestry nails. Two of the six chairs still have their white upholstery on the back. The other four have a pretty gingham in orange and white tones as seen in the photo.
