Description

Vienna ateliers Hagenauer 1920s small stylized bird sculpture LIS24OIS001brass small bird on disc Vienna, ateliers Hagenauer, 1920s, brass, small stylized sculpture of a bird on a twig, height 5 cm Pretty little object, just the thing to start a new collection, Hagenauer treated the animal subject well, often humorously ...Karl Hagenauer (1898-1956) was an Austrian Art Deco sculptor and designer. At the age of eleven, he enrolled at the Vienna School of Applied Arts. He studied with Josef Hoffmann and Oskar Strnad, and created designs for the the Wiener Werkstätte art collective. At first glance, an eye is missing; it's a small piece of glass, very simple to restore yourself. Please note that, although classified as a Vienna bronze, this object is made of brass.
