Description

An elegant French mirror from the late 19th century, featuring a refined frame of finely carved and gilded wood. The frame is richly decorated with volutes, leaf motifs, and floral details in the late Baroque/Rococo style, lending the piece a sense of movement and opulence.The gilding, with light patinas from age, enhances the depth of the carvings and attests to the authenticity and charm of the era. The central mirror, with its undulating and harmonious shape, is perfectly integrated into the frame, creating a striking visual balance.Ideal for classic, eclectic, or contemporary settings seeking a decorative element with character, this mirror is a piece of furniture of great elegance and prestige.
