Description

This is a large painting from the 1960s by Louis Sala, an artist born in Lectoure in the Gers region. A student of the Bordeaux School of Fine Arts, Sala was both a painter and sculptor. He surrounded himself with a network of artists at his château in Cuq (Lot-et-Garonne), including André Cahour. Upon Sala's death, Cahour inherited a large part of his studio and created the Cahour Collection, from which this work originates. A geometric composition and urban abstraction on a hardboard panel, this piece blends pictorial work with relief techniques, using wooden partitions and forms to segment the image.

Dimensions: Wooden panel 108 x 100 cm / with frame 112 x 104 cm
