Description

series of six Limoges porcelain coffee cups and saucers, gilded and blue decoration by Camille Le Tallec (1906_1991). A Breton artist, Camille Le Tallec set up his workshop in 1928. Originally inspired by Chinese art, he later moved on to more classical 18th-century designs. Building on his success, he moved his workshops and stores to Paris. When he died in 1989, his business was bought by the Tiffany company.possibility of 12 cups: 1600 eurospossibility of 18 cups: 2400 euros
