Description

series of 4 Limoges porcelain teacups and saucers, gilded and bird design, by Camille Le Tallec (1906_1991) Artist from Brittany, Camille Le Tallec created his workshop in 1928, originally inspired by Chinese art, but later evolving towards more classical 18th-century designs. Building on his success, he moved his workshops and stores to Paris. On his death in 1989, his company was bought by the "Tiffany" firm.
