Description

Superb clasp for a six-strand beaded bracelet: steel, coral, mother-of-pearl, garnet, jet... The clasp features a rectangular central box adorned with a flower inlaid with diamond-cut steel shuttles. On either side, two elegant articulated elements, decorated with intertwined shuttles, mark the beginning of the six strands. This piece demonstrates exceptional craftsmanship, revealing true jeweler's skill. Period: Directoire or French Restauration. 3.5cm x 7cm. A rare item, of good size and good condition, although some jump rings and the beading are missing. Available for immediate purchase by credit card or PayPal. -- eclectic -- We are not experts, but have been in the business for over 50 years.
