Description

Limoges porcelain cake dish with small handle, gilded decoration, blue and birds, by Camille Le Tallec (1906_ 1989) Artist from Brittany, Camille Le Tallec set up his workshop in 1928. Originally inspired by Chinese art, he later evolved towards more classical 18th-century designs. Building on his success, he moved his workshops and stores to Paris. On his death in 1989, his company was bought by the "Tiffany" house.
