Description

Superb wrought-iron console with rich scrollwork and foliate ornamentation, featuring several antique black and gilded bronze patinas. It is topped with an elegant corbin-beaked marble top in rosy hues and has its original free-standing mirror, a particularly rare element that underlines all the refinement of the piece. The wrought iron work is of great finesse, with an eventful, balanced silhouette reminiscent of Louis XV / Napoleon III style decorative productions. Beautiful workmanship. Epoque: 20th century Materials: wrought iron, marble and mirror Original skates Very good condition Dimensions: Height: 90 cm Length: 135 cm Possibility of placing it at the desired height
