Description

Louis XV style balbed scriban chest of drawers opening with a wide flap revealing an interior fitted with small drawers and storage compartments. The curved front features two large drawers richly molded and carved with rocaille and foliate decorations in the taste of the 18th century. The piece rests on cambered legs finished with scrolls, typical of the Louis XV style. The flap is sheathed with an antique brown leather blotter providing a practical and elegant writing space. Fine-quality 20th-century work in molded and carved wood, here presented in a more recent anthracite-gray patina that gives it a very contemporary decorative look. Dimensions: Height: 101 cm Width: 102 cm Depth: 49 cm Condition: Good overall structural condition. Visible wear and rubbing to
