Description

An elegant Louis XV "Cartel" wall clock, crafted in Venice around the mid-18th century. The piece features a finely lacquered wooden frame, embellished with richly chiseled gilded bronze applications. The circular white enameled porcelain dial features Roman numerals for the hours and Arabic numerals for the minutes, with exquisitely crafted gilded bronze hands. The clock's flowing, dramatic silhouette lends a striking decorative impact, enhanced by the quality of the carving and the sophisticated polychrome lacquer. An example of fine 18th-century Venetian cabinetmaking, this important Louis XV clock is a prestigious furnishing accessory, ideal for classical settings, antique collections, and historic homes. A piece of great elegance and historical value, it
