Description

An 18th century regional chest of drawers, circa 1750-1760, in light walnut opening to five drawers on three rows. With a harmoniously curved front, it rests on a snail-shaped front base. The lower crosspiece is carved with a flower basket for a beautiful decorative effect. Capped with its original walnut top, it has undergone only minor restorations, which are quite normal for a piece of furniture of this age, and is in very good condition for everyday use. If required, we can arrange transport within France at a reasonable price.
