

Large Writing Case With Domed Lid In Violet Wood Veneer, Late 17th/early 18th Century

900 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Solid wood

Length : 36cm

Width : 29,5cm

Height : 17,5cm

Description

An important case with a slightly domed lid, probably intended as a writing desk and letter tray, in violet wood veneer and inlaid decoration with a central rosette motif, the arrangement of the wood veins composing an antique "velum" shape. Four interior compartments, one of which can be opened by sliding the dividing wall. Four small raved feet, perhaps added later. Small cracks, rare knocks. Stains documented in photo. Missing hook and key. Overall very good condition. Wonderful patina. Louis XIV-Régence period, late XVIIth - early XVIIIth century.
17.5x36x29.5cm

Dealer

Via Margutta

Antique paintings and drawings, charming items from the past

Mobile : +33637594092

5 rue Pache

Paris 75011