Description

Very beautiful Art Deco sculpture depicting a kneeling nude woman holding a kid in a composition of sober, elegant lines. The attitude of the figure and the stylized treatment of the whole perfectly reflect the decorative aesthetic of the 1930s. Made in fine polychrome glazed earthenware with a crackled glaze, this work features beautiful shades of white, gray and metallic brown. The natural crackle of the glaze adds depth and character to the surface. The integrated base with marbled decoration underlines the decorative quality of the piece and reinforces its sculptural presence.
