Description

10947-8 - French Art Deco school, "Élégante au lévrier" Large Art Deco sculpture depicting an elegant nude female figure reclining next to a greyhound, in a composition of fluid, clean lines typical of the 1930's. Rendered in crackle-glazed ceramic, this work captivates with the sobriety of its ivory glaze and the finesse of its modeling. The elongated posture of the young woman and the presence of the greyhound reflect the Art Deco taste for stylized forms, feminine elegance and scenes imbued with calm and refinement. The network of natural craquelures in the glaze adds depth and character to the surface, reinforcing the decorative charm of the whole. Origine: French Art Deco school Subject: "Elegant with greyhound" Material: cracked ceramic Signature: signed on the terrace (illegible) Dimensions: H: 32
