Description

Solid walnut double-evolution armoire opening with two richly molded doors. 18th century provincial work, in the Louis XIV / Regency taste. It features a remarkable stepped front, underlined by an elegant gendarme-cap cornice in high relief. The deeply molded panels and protruding jambs give it a very fine architectural presence. The furniture has retained its extensive locks and original wrought-iron cremone bolts and fittings, giving it a sought-after authenticity and decorative quality. Very beautiful antique walnut patina. Antique assembly. Antique interior. A few restorations and traces of age consistent with the furniture's age. Original functional lock and key. Delivery in Metropolitan France 200EUR (delivered installed at home). Contact us for more information.
