Description

Renaissance limestone mantel, richly adorned with fine carvings. Composed of two jambs and a one-piece hollowed-out lintel. The jambs are straight, carved in plaquette style, with tureens, griffins, foliage and mascarons...the entablature is set on an acanthus leaf, topped with a thick gadrooned cornice. The entire length of the entablature is carved with fine but splendid ornamentation such as plant phoenixes and foliage, and the background of the sculpture is gilded with gold leaf. This is an exceptional piece, worthy of the châteaux of the Loire. Original from Paris. The stone is a Pierre de Paris limestone. can be shipped anywhere in the world.
