Description

Charming Capodimonte porcelain sculpture depicting a winged putto seated next to a basket profusely filled with roses in relief. The ensemble is distinguished by fine modeling, delicate floral work and the satiny whiteness characteristic of Capodimonte-style production. The details of the hand-applied flowers testify to refined decorative craftsmanship inspired by Italian rococo taste. Please note a restoration at the base of the basket handle (see photo) Shipping in wooden crate France 30EUR Shipping in wooden crate Europe 50EUR Shipping in wooden crate for any other destination ask for a quote
