Description

Ziegler rug dating from the 1950s/60s. Large Afghan Ziegler rug with a floral design inspired by the famous Persian Heriz and Sultanabad patterns. Its elegant brick-red field with broad palmettes and stylized scrolls is framed by a beautiful celadon blue border, offering a refined and highly decorative contrast. The patinated hues and natural abrasches attest to the authentic charm of antique handcrafted rugs. Woven in wool, this rug captivates with its balanced design, warm palette, and strong decorative presence. An ideal piece for a classic, bohemian chic, or contemporary interior. Size : 450x360 cm Condition : Used. General wear to the wool due to age. There are five areas of wool loss on one side and five more in the same alignment on the opposite side (visible in the last two photos),
