

---

De Lambert, Oil On Panel, Small Size, Nicely Framed 20th Century

230 EUR

Signature : Maurice de Lambert

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Painted wood

Width : 26

Height : 34

Description

A small-format oil on panel depicting a children's merry-go-round in a tree-lined square, in the Impressionist style. Signed lower right Maurice de Lambert. Beautiful gold and cream frame. Period: 20th century. Dimensions: framed 34x26 cm, view 20x12.5 cm. Very good condition. Maurice Walter Edmond Labatt de Lambert dit Maurice de Lambert (1873-1952), French illustrator, painter, decorator and engraver. A student of Gustave Moreau and Georges-Antoine Rochegrosse, he began illustrating with illuminations for two bookworks: La Légende du Beau by Victor Hugo and Le Chevalier double by Théophile Gautier. He designed the sets for several Montmartre shows. He produces for the publisher Manzi, a large number of full-length

Dealer

ADEQUANTIK

Antics

Mobile : 0682817031

6 rue Gay Lussac

Angers 49100

portraits of actors: SarahBernhardt, Sacha Guitry, Réjane, etc. His paintings are often exhibited in Parisand abroad. Lambert was also interested in the art of typography,designing vignettes for Grasset typefaces.