Description

Dating from the early 20th century, these wide armchairs are a testament to high-quality traditional craftsmanship. Their solid wood structure is richly hand-carved, featuring the iconic rocaille motifs of the period: scrolls, flowers, and foliage adorn the backrest, the seat rail, and the cabriole legs. The wooden frame is entirely finished in gold leaf. This finish provides an incomparable brilliance as well as an authentic patina, enhanced by the passage of time. The gilding shows signs of wear, witnesses to its history and guarantees of its authenticity, which only add to the charm of these pieces.
