Description

Rare and Interesting Small Béguinage FurnitureCharacteristic of Flanders: the beguines, who formed autonomous communities in buildings built around a tree-lined courtyard, led a life of devout but active penance in workshops and infirmaries.If it suited them to be modest, they were not to live poorly.The austere furnishings of the béguinages thus present a quality, a sobriety and a rigor in the image of demanding forms of devotion.For a model to compare in Mobilier des Provinces Belges et des Flandres Françaises page 47.Provenance: Communauté du Couvent des Ursulines Valenciennes.Oak and Renaissance period.Small missing molding and small shelf.Good condition.High 85 cmLong 90 cmProf. 47cm
