Description

A magnificent large French Renaissance-style bookcase dating from around 1900, crafted in solid walnut and featuring a rich, majestic look. This impressive bookcase features four large doors, three spacious drawers in the lower section and is fully equipped with shelves. The furniture is distinguished by its fine wood carvings as well as its five long fluted columns, giving it an elegant and luxurious character. Thanks to the warm hue of the walnut and the beauty of its grain, this bookcase is a true centerpiece in both classic and refined interiors. The bookcase is entirely disassembled and assembled by hand. The bookcase can be completely disassembled, making it considerably easier to transport and install. It is preserved in beautiful condition, in keeping with its age and origin. The bookcase is
