

Pair Of Cubic Swivel Armchairs By Lensvelt, Netherlands About 2000

3 000 EUR

Signature : Dirk Van Berkel

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Metal

Width : 58,5 cm

Height : 81 cm; h d'assise 51 cm x h d'accoudoir 76 cm

Depth : 64 cm

Description

Pair of cubic swivel armchairs by Lensvelt, Netherlands About 2000 Design: Dirk Van Berkel Model: "Deejay" (2001) Cubic shape. Original Mocca Brown felt in very good condition. Rests on a brushed stainless steel bar and round base. Fully swiveling Particularity: inside the right armrest is a concealed black lacquered metal sliding shelf. Dimensions: H 81 cm x W 58.5 cm x D 64 cm x Seat H 51 cm x Arm H 76 cm A peppy piece of furniture that nonetheless exudes a certain formality and offers very comfortable seating. Dirk van Berkel was looking for the critical tension between a stable bucket shape and the precise details of the steel or matte chrome base. The legs are equipped with castors. Leather is often the preferred upholstery due to its high-end appearance, so the shape of

Dealer

COLONEUM Antik

Biedermeier, Empire, Art Déco, Bauhaus and Design furniture

Tel : +49 941 52300

Mobile : +49 15792615842

Fax : +49 941 5676214

Watmarkt 3

Regensburg 93047

the armchair was kept simple. The DeeJay is also available with an integrated fold-down shelf. The chair is also available with a column base for reception areas, waiting rooms and meeting rooms. The DeeJay is also available with a fold-down integrated shelf.