Description

Elegant architectural or decorative element in gray patinated metal, featuring in the center the square and compass, emblematic emblems of Freemasonry, framed by a stylized plant decoration in relief. The set is captivating for its fine metalwork, balanced geometric graphics and beautiful, slightly oxidized antique patina that lends it a great deal of character. This piece could originally have adorned a facade, gate, portal, door top or even workshop or lodge furniture. Today, it will find its perfect place as a wall decoration in an industrial interior, a cabinet of curiosities or a collection devoted to Masonic objects. Ancient craftsmanship, beautiful decorative presence.
