Description

Elegant Limoges polychrome enamelled porcelain box depicting a stylized seated young woman, forming the lid of the box. The figure, treated in an Art Deco spirit, wears a graphic dress in black and ivory tones adorned with geometric motifs and small stylized flowers. The finely drawn face and short hairstyle emphasize the modernist aesthetic of the 1920s-1930s. The spherical lower part conceals a covered box, making this piece both decorative and utilitarian. The whole presents a beautiful contrast between the glossy black solids and the softness of the ivory tones. French work from Limoges, characteristic of Art Deco decorative productions in enamelled porcelain. Origine: Limoges, France Era: Art Deco, circa 1925-1935 Material: polychrome enamelled porcelain Dimensions: [to be
