Description

Lovely linen thread bed set, consisting of a long, wide sheet and two pillowcases (early 20th century). Made from a very high quality linen, this set is decorated with dots embroidered in plumetis stitch, underlined by a series of venise days. White embroidery executed by hand with precision and regularity. A textile whose suppleness and fluidity make it particularly pleasant to the touch. There are no initials on this set, which leaves you free to choose the number to be embroidered. Antique off-white linen, washed and ironed. Condition : Please note a weaving flaw featuring a blue thread in the centre of a pillowcase (see photos)? Buy this item on our website? Additional informations and photos? Online payments ?
