Description

Superb Transition period chest of drawers, late 18th century, finely illustrating the transition from Louis XV to Louis XVI style. It features an elegant, slightly curved front with Ressaut and a balanced structure, typical of this pivotal period.The Mounts are rounded with simulated flutes in Marquetry.It opens with three drawers arranged in three rows , offering a beautiful storage space.The fronts are richly decorated with geometric marquetry in precious wood veneer, forming particularly meticulous radiating motifs in rosewood and violet wood, surrounded by green-tinted wood fillets . The frames, key escutcheons, handles and corner falls are in finely chased gilt bronze, adding sparkle and refinement to the ensemble.The arched legs, adorned with bronze Lion's paw hooves , underline the
