Description

Decorative panel in the style of Maison Jansen, 20th century, lacquered finish with animated Asian scenery. A superb composition inspired by traditional Chinese and Japanese decorative art, executed on a deep black lacquer ground enhanced with gilt and polychrome details. The scene depicts an elegant lakeside landscape populated with figures, pagodas, mountains, stylized trees, and birds in flight, recalling the refined spirit of Far Eastern screens highly appreciated by Maison Jansen. The richly ornamented border further enhances the sophistication of the piece and gives it a striking decorative presence. Both timeless and elegant, this panel would complement classical, eclectic, or contemporary interiors alike. 20th century decorative work, in the taste of Maison
