

Egypt: Ring With Mobile Bezel Formed By A Scarab Beetle

480 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Copper

Description

EGYPT: Ring with mobile bezel formed by a scarab beetle. Gold-plated copper 7.26 g. 28 x 21 mm. Finger size: 57 (UK: P 1/2. US: 8) The scarab bears the Nefer sign (meaning the beautiful) in the center flanked by the emblems of Hathor. Very beautiful ring revival made on the model of a New Kingdom ring (1550-1069 BC) conserved in the Louvre (call number AF2380 - see Drovetti no. 263). It is an ancient model with an attractive patina. Perfectly wearable.
