Description

Important and elegant sculpture in white marble depicting a seated nude young woman, in an attitude full of grace and gentleness. This work, signed "Falconet" on the base, is in the tradition of the great neoclassical sculptures inspired by 18th-century models. The finesse of the face, the delicate treatment of the hair and the quality of the drapery bear witness to particularly meticulous workmanship. The natural, refined posture of this young bather recalls the iconic compositions of Étienne-Maurice Falconet, a celebrated French sculptor renowned for the elegance and sensuality of his female figures. Crafted in a beautiful white marble with a satin patina, this sculpture has a beautiful decorative presence and will find a perfect place in a classic, contemporary interior or a home with
